SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., June 1, 2007—

Everyone knows that balanced nutrition is essential for maintaining healthy, beautiful skin and proper body functioning. Having supplemental essentials delivered from a trusted brand directly to your doorstep couldn't be more convenient. DHC USA Inc., a distinguished provider of high-quality skincare products, makeup, and fine foods, is proud to announce the addition of three nutritional supplements to its family of lifestyle products: Vitamin C Hard Capsules, Vitamin E, and Echinacea. Each product is sold separately.

"DHC introduced the supplements to complement its commitment to lifestyle products that promote whole health," explains Hadrian Miguel, licensed esthetician at DHC USA's headquarters in San Francisco, California. "Now, feeling great and looking great is completely and conveniently within your reach. Antioxidant-rich, free radical-fighting vitamins C and E as well as healthy immune-supporting echinacea can help balance your overall wellness choices, for beauty from the inside out."
