Bells Will Be Ringing

Don't Be Afraid of Beauty

As soon as you say makeup, some people scam. Well, don't fret. While most people - men included - look better on camera with some foundation, you don't have to go high femme to look good on your special day.

I used DHC's Velvet Skin Coat, a pre-makeup prop that keeps your makeup on from dusk till dawn; Revitalizing Moisture Strips to take away that puffy "wild bachelorette party" look; and Vitamin C White Stick lip moisturizer to get my pucker in shape. (www.dhccare.com).
